

Thursday 1 July 2021

press*release _ 019 - 21

In the masculine tricolor hegemony; gold to Switzerland in the women's in Pila

First individual titles awarded today in Pila (Valle d'Aosta) at the European Youth Mountain Bike Championships, in a highly spectacular specialty, the Xc Eliminator, monopolized by the men by an all-tricolor final and, by the women characterized by the Swiss double, and continental champion jerseys worn by Chloe Tschumi and Mario Campana.

Chloe Tschumi from Switzerland goes to the gold in the XC Eliminator under 15. A final dominated by the athlete of the Tropical Solothurn team; she followed by her compatriot Elena Frei (Tsp Zurisee) and the Dutch Mae Cabaca (The Flying lowlanders), who go to occupy the squares of honor; fourth the Danish Sara Aaboe Kallestrup. The "final" in the women's category saw the Czech Republic standard-bearer Hanka Vikova finishing fifth, followed by her partner Amalie Gottwaldova; sixth was the representative of Italy Sofia Guichardaz, followed by the Danish Kamma Bergholt.

All-Italian male podium: the new under 15 Xce European champion is the Lombard Mario Campana, winner of an all-Italian final, a three-way race from the very beginning, after the fall of the Bolzano player Fabian Hoellrigl a few meters from the start. Silver to the Altoatesino Hannes Wenter, third the Bergamo Stefano Melani (Lombardia 3) and fourth, in fact, Fabian Hoellrigl. An Italy that has monopolized the men's semifinal, with the exception of the Swiss Thibaud Contesse (Team Valais) who will finish in seventh place, third in the 'small final'. Fifth place for the representative of the blue colors Federico Rosario Brafa, followed by Alessandro Micolucci (Scott Libarna); the eighth position goes to Stefano Cuneo (Bici Camogli).

The XCE Under 15 has opened the second day of competitions in which the European medals of the European Youth Mountainbike Championships are awarded. In the men's category, 64 athletes started, divided into 16 heats. In the women's categories 32 the athletes at the start, divided into eight heats. Five hundred meters of track in this race among the most spectacular of the five days of competitions.a.

